The sudden apparition, among us, last week, of two EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE WESTERN UNION green youths from St. Louis, has suggested this article, and the particular application to them, of a sermon preached last Sumlay evening, by Rev. J. L. BENNETT; the amount of that part relating to this subject, being, that in their thirst for distinction, "men semetimes glory in their shame."

One of these young men undertook the study of law; but one thing was lacking - he had no brains! The idea that he was not fitted for the pursuit, seems to ferred the following resolution, and moved passed. have found its way into his head, after several years its adoption, which was lost, ages 9, nays Mr. Rannells introduced a bill to incorlonging about an attorney's office.

Inging about an attorney's office.

The law, then, had no fevers for him. Another idea dawned upon him. He was less than a cypher in the city, but it might be possible to astonish the country.

The boy, think-whole, the vote stood as follows: ing this a case of actual necessity, waited a long time, and then waited longer! but hours rolled on, and he saw neither Cuffy nor the money. The lad then informed Marshal Dudding of the facts, and the negro was arrested and brought before Recorder Holt, and sentenced to receive ten lashes. This is one of the Free Soilers you read about, and we think Seward would find it a good speculation to get this colored member of the higher law party,' to act as his private secretary.

Enterprize .- Our enterprizing citizen, Mr. Jamer R Garnett, intends opening a large American and Italian Marble Yard, on the vacant lot on Main street, opposite the Brady House.
